

John Gayer
Helsinki, Finland

John Gayer was born and raised in Leamington, Ontario, Canada, a small community situated on the outskirts of the Windsor/Detroit region. In addition to graduating from the Ontario College of Art, Toronto (1978), he participated in the Winter Studio Program at the Banff Centre, Banff, Alberta (1981-82) and completed a degree in art history and anthropology at the University of Toronto (1994).

His artwork, which encompasses painting, photography, artist books, mail art, performance and installation, has been exhibited in Canada, Finland, Ireland and Sweden. He is also active as a writer and has written about art and artists for numerous publications. They include Art Papers, Paper Visual Art Journal (papervisualart.com), Sculpture Magazine, this is tomorrow - Contemporary Art Magazine (thisistomorrow.info) and the Visual Artists' News Sheet, among others.

He is currently based in Helsinki, Finland. More info at johngayer.weebly.com

